

Hello, Attendees!

OSNA is very excited to see all of you this Saturday for the first Oregon nursing state convention since the COVID pandemic. Before coming to the convention, the board of directors has some updates and information for the day of. All breakfast, lunch, and beverages are complimentary. Selected food items are vegan, vegetarian, and gluten-free! The exhibit is open all day starting at 10:00 am. Complimentary bags for the exhibit and goodie bags will be given to students upon registration entry. You can receive your OSNA lanyard when you come through the front doors of the great hall. All students will have a chance to

Parking:

Parking for the convention will be available in lot D. Attendees can park here free of charge and will be ushered from 7:00 am to 8:30 am to the auditorium by volunteers from the parking lot. If you get to the convention after 8:30 am, there is a map attached to this letter to follow. You can take the elevator & stairs to the bridge from level 4 of the library across to the old auditorium entrance. Once you cross the bridge, the auditorium will be to your left. Please see the photo.

Breakouts & Keynotes:

The triage nursing breakout sessions, in the morning and repeated in the afternoon, no longer require an RSVP. There is still a maximum capacity of 50 students per session. Students who do want to attend this session will need to watch the introduction video posted on the website under the convention tab. You cannot attend this session without the information in the video.

We encourage all students to bring questions ready to ask the nurses for the breakout session number three in the morning and afternoon of panel specialty nurses. Students will also have the opportunity at the end of the keynote sessions to ask questions to our excited speakers.

OSNA is committed to building a strong membership and organization through striving for racial and economic equity with inclusion. The Oregon Student Nurses Association welcomes all genders, nationalities, people of color, and disabilities. We will not tolerate any form of discrimination at any OSNA events or gatherings.

OSNA looks forward to seeing you all! Please reach out to secretary@oregonsna.org if you have any questions about the convention. Please allow 24 to 48 hours for a response.

Sincerely,

OSNA Board of Directors
